1. Why are you interested in sending your child to Living Wisdom School?

2. What would you describe as your child's best character traits, spiritual qualities, and academic abilities?

3. Please describe your child's qualities that aren't as strong as the above, or that need improvement.

4. What, specifically, would you like to see your child concentrate on developing this school year?

5. Has your child had strongly positive or negative school experiences in the past, or recently experienced any important family events—death, divorce, re-marriage, moving, friends moving away, etc. — that would be helpful to tell us about?

6. Do you have any special talents, interests, or experiences that you would like to share with the children of Living Wisdom School? (Be creative!)

7. Ask your child how he or she feels about coming to Living Wisdom School. Are there things that he or she happily looks forward to? Are there things that he or she feels uneasy or uncomfortable about?

8. Please discuss with your child the fact that our school has a strong spiritual element, where the students experience practices such as prayer, devotional singing, and a God-centered attitude. How do you and your child feel about this aspect of our school?

Please list the school your child has attended in the last 3 years (with complete addresses so that we can request transcripts).
